FORTY-FIFTH CONGRESS.

The Grover Investigation—Extension of Session—Mexican Claims—Tobacco Tax Reduced.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Morgan, of Alabama, submitted a joint resolution proposing the amendment to the Constitution of the United States so as to allow the President to approve any part of the appropriation bill and to disapprove any part of such bill as he may think proper. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Wadleigh, of New Hampshire, from the Committee on Privileges and Elections, to whom was referred the resolution of the Senate, adopted at the last session, instructing that committee to enquire into the charges that the election of L. F. Grover, a United States Senator from Oregon was procured by fraud and bribery, reported that the evidence taken did not sustain any of such charges against him. He moved that the committee be discharged from the further consideration of the subject; so ordered. Leave was given to various members of the committee to file their views in the case.

Windom, of Minnesota, called up the concurrent resolution submitted by him yesterday, extending the session until 12 o'clock Thursday, June 20.

After some discussion as to the condition of business, an amendment submitted by Mr. Whyte, to extend the session until 12 o'clock Wednesday, the 16th instead of Thursday, was rejected by a vote of 25 yeas to 26 nays. The original resolution, extending the session until Thursday, was then agreed to. Yeas, 35; nays, 9, and it was immediately sent to the House for the concurrence of that body.

The Conference Committee on Mexican Claims agreed that the President may, as a matter of courtesy to Mexico on her request, rehear the La-Abra and Weil cases. It is expressly declared that this action is not to be regarded as an expression of opinion regarding the rightfulness of the claims.

The House passed the conference report on the River and Harbor Bill, substantially as amended by the Senate.

The House has resumed the consideration of the Internal Revenue Bill. The reduction of tax on tobacco to 16 cents has passed, and the pending question is upon allowing planters to make certain disposition of tobacco of their own growth.

HOUSE.—The report of the Conference Committee on the river and harbor bill was agreed to, amid a good deal of confusion, by a vote of yeas 150, nays 98. The consideration of the bill amending the Internal Revenue laws, was resumed, and the House struck out the amendment adopted some days ago, repealing the provision of the law relating to the removal of causes from State to Federal courts.

An amendment was adopted fixing the 1st of September, 1878, as the date upon which the reduction in the tax on tobacco should take effect. No formal action was reached.

The Conference report on the army bill was made and agreed to, the army strength being limited to 25,000, and the section prohibiting the use of the army to enforce the civil law being retained.

SENATE.—The reports of the Conference on the army and river and harbor bill, were adopted. They go to the President.

Suffering of the Emigrants on the Azor.

By Telegraph to the News.

CHARLESTON, S. C., June 15.—The News and Courier has a special cable correspondence dated at Sierra Leone May 19, via Madeira to-day, announcing the arrival, at the former place, of the bark Azor, which sailed from Charleston, April 21st, with 250 negro immigrants for Liberia. There was much suffering on the voyage, the water having become short. The ship fever broke out and twenty-three of the emigrants died. The rest were in good spirits at having reached Africa.

EUROPEAN NEWS.

The Congress in Session—Measures for Peace—Duration of the Assembly—Beaconsfield and Bismarck,

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, June 15.—Despatches from Berlin to the Standard and Post, says Lord Beaconsfield in his speech in the Congress, on Thursday, called attention to the perils attaching to the military situation at Constantinople.

The Post's correspondent states that Lord Beaconsfield demanded an immediate change that would remove the dangerous proximity of the Russian and Turkish armies in Roumelia, and expressed hopes that the Russian delegates would be able at the next sitting to announce that the Russian troops had withdrawn.

A special to the Daily News, from Berlin, states: "It is said that Lord Beaconsfield will depart from Berlin next week, whilst Count Andrassy has arranged to stay a month. This causes the belief, which is encouraged by the Russian and English plenipotentiaries, that the critical point between them will be much more easily settled than that between Russia and Austria.

BERLIN, June 15.—The Congress will certainly not sit daily, but the time and intervals of adjournment will be left for discussion from day to day. It seems to be the general impression that the Congress will certainly last several weeks.

The National Zeitung says Prince Bismarck will leave Berlin in about ten days, and that neither Lord Beaconsfield nor Prince Gortschakoff will await the end of deliberations. If this be true, the final details will be entrusted to the second and third plenipotentiaries.

The Empress received all first plenipotentiary yesterday.

The German court will go into mourning for the late King of Hanover, which will interfere with the many contemplated festivities.

It is said that in their private interviews Lord Beaconsfield has made a favorable impression on Prince Bismarck. The latter is also noticeably amiable to the French envoys.

The Manchester Guardian's London correspondent mentions the existence of an Anglo-Turkish understanding which is a kind of supplement to the Anglo-Russian agreement. It secures the paramount influence of England, not only in Asia Minor but at Constantinople.

The Standard, in its financial article to-day, says:—Lord Salisbury before going to Berlin consulted with the leading bankers about the position and capabilities of Turkey, with a view to the establishment of a financial commission at Constantinople similar to that now existing in Egypt. The scheme apparently receives the support of the Vienna and Berlin Cabinets.

CONVENTION OF THE Y. M. C. A.

Devotional Exercises—Addresses and Lectures—Election of Officers.

Correspondence of the News.

GREENSBORO, June 13.

The convention was called to order at half past 8 to-night, by a very excellent prayer by Rev. S. D. Adams, of the M. E. Church, Greensboro station. After which the choir, (led by Professor Brockmann, at one of Waters' fine orchestral organs), sang, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name."

Address of welcome by Judge R. P. Dick, of the Greensboro Association, and reply by I. H. Foust, Chairman of the State Executive Committee. Then the choir sang, "Brightly Beams Our Father's Mercy," "Rescue the Perishing," and "Think of a Home Over There," when, after some routine business, the closing prayer and benediction followed by Dr. Harral, of Graham. There are quite a number of delegates present.

SECOND DAY.

GREENSBORO, June 14.

Morning service 9 to 9½ o'clock devotional exercises.

At 10½ o'clock the Convention was called to order by the former chairman, I. H. Foust, and after the appointment of Committee on Permanent Organization, the following were nominated and elected: I. H. Foust, Charlotte, President; W C Doub, Greensboro, and J H Lambreth, Reidsville, Vice-Presidents; Mr Southgate, Chapel Hill, Secretary.

Afternoon 3 to 3½ devotional exercises.

After which the subjects of how to make prayer interesting and profitable, and how to read the Bible, were discussed separately, and participated in very freely by many delegates in a very free and conversational, and by some eloquent remarks. At 5½ p m., an open air meeting was held in front of the court-house, largely attended, led by a short address by Dr Harral, with remarks by Messrs. Foust, Cree and Morehead.

At 8 p. m., a very large crowd assembled at Benbow Hall—devotional half hour. The lecture of Rev Caraway on the relation of the Young Men's Christian Association and the church, was ably discussed, and showed conclusively how near akin are they, following which Prof Reinhardt made a fine and impressive address; with words of much spirit and cheer, from the Secretary of the International Association of the United States and Canada, Mr Cree. These lectures portrayed the ghastly effects of strong drink and its attendant evils, especially on young men from 14 to 28 years old.

WAKE COUNTY.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

SWIFT CREEK, June 14.

Your correspondent is sorely grieved with headache from seeing Judge Schenck fail to get that nomination.

We are all here in favor of R. H. Battle for the Senate and L. D. Stephenson for the House, and David Lewis for Sheriff, J. J. Williams for Probate and anybody the party wants for the other positions.

In these severe storms we have suffered but little. Crops are looking well.

Your correspondent's many friends and acquaintances whom he met on yesterday, seemed to think that Judge Merrimon wrote that letter to clear the path for Governor Vance to get the nomination for Senator.

TRINITY COLLEGE.

ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT WEEK.

Commencement Day—An Interesting Programme—Speeches of the Graduates—Presentations—The Concluding Sociable—Retrospective.

TRINITY COLLEGE, June 14.

I am sorry that you will not get my report of yesterday's exercises by the mail to-day. It was promptly forwarded to the railroad by a gentleman going directly there, but he had the misfortune of being unavoidably delayed on the way, and as he was approaching High Point the train moved off and left my report behind, very much to my discomfort, and, no doubt, equally so to yours.

COMMENCEMENT DAY.

The morning was showery, the weather rather cool and the atmosphere damp. Notwithstanding this, however, long before the time for opening the exercises the chapel was crowded, and by the time the exercises were opened the aisles and passages and doors were filled with chairs, and yet there were a great many who could not get in the house at all. It was estimated, by competent judges, that there were present on the ground between twenty-five hundred and three thousand people; about two thousand were seated in the chapel.

At 10:30 a. m. the ministers, trustees and prominent gentlemen present were escorted upon the rostrum by the marshal; soon after the young gentlemen of the senior class were conducted to seats upon the rostrum. Gov. Colquitt, Bishop Wightman, accompanied by Drs. B. Craven and N. H. D. Wilson, entered amidst applause and took seats on the rostrum. Dr. Craven then escorted three young ladies to seats on the rostrum. These three young ladies were members of the senior class. The exercises of the day were conducted according to the following

The first speech was in Latin, and was well delivered. Some of the learned gentlemen on the rostrum tried to look interested, and we saw some holding their hands behind their ears, so as to hear well, and they looked as wise as if they understood every word he said. We don't believe they did—we know we didn't. The French speech was delivered distinctly and gracefully, and was as well understood as was the Latin speech. The other speeches were all in the English tongue, and were so good that it would be difficult to distinguish between them. There was not an inferior speech delivered to-day—the speeches were short, being about five minutes in length on an average, and were undoubtedly the best speeches we ever heard from a graduating class, and we think that in this opinion we express what nearly all present thought.

A LARGE GRADUATING CLASS.

The graduating class numbered twenty-two, including the three ladies: This, we believe, is the largest class graduated from any college in North Carolina since the war. The young gentlemen look well and, from what we have seen of them, bid fair to become honored and useful citizens.

THREE LADY GRADUATES.

For the last five or six years three young ladies of Trinity have been pursuing the studies of the curriculum of the college by private recitations at the Professors' residences, and have completed the course in full, and received diplomas to-day, conferring upon them the degree of A. B. Dr. Craven stated that they had passed a most creditable examination, and were as much entitled to the degree as the young men were. This announcement was received with applause. This is unprecedented in the history of North Carolina colleges. The names of the young ladies will be found in the above programme. They did not read their theses, but handed them in.

REPORTS.

Dr. Craven then read the report indicating who had received the honors in the different classes. In the Senior Class, C. N. Mason received the first honor; J. F. Brower second, and J. E. Thompson, third. In the Junior Class, E. Tanner received the first honor; T. N. Ivy, second, and H. E. Norris, third. In the Sophomore Class, E. H. Davis received the first honor; R. T. Crews, second, and D. E. Perry, third. In the Freshman Class, W. T. Lyon received the first honor; W. J. Adams, second, and J. C. Fink, third.

DEGREES CONFERRED.

The degree of A. B. was conferred on the twenty-two members of the Senior Class, whose names, except that of Mr. Mason, who delivered the Valedictory, appear on the above programme.

The degree of A. M. was conferred on J A Worthy, A D Brooks, H W Spinks, Thomas Taylor and W A Wilborn, all former graduates of Trinity.

The degree of D. D. on Rev Henry M Ford, of Kentucky, Rev Josiah Lewis, Professor in the Southern University at Greensboro, Ala., and Rev Samuel Lander, President of Williamston Female College, of South Carolina.

MEDALS PRESENTED.

It has been a custom at Trinity for the Literary Societies to present each member of the graduating class with a gold medal, as a token of affection, to be preserved as a memento of the society presenting it. These medals were presented to Gov. Colquitt, by representatives from each society, and he was requested to present them to the members of the graduating class. Gov. Colquitt came forward, and in a most thrilling, witty and impressive impromptu address, presented these medals to the young gentlemen. During his address he was frequently and loudly applauded.

Dr. Craven, on behalf of the Columbian Literary Society, presented the lady graduates with gold medals, as tokens of admiration and esteem. The ladies were not members of the Society, but were Columbians in sentiment and feeling.

PRESENTATION OF BIBLES.

The officers of the college have a beautiful custom of presenting each graduate from the institution with a copy of the Bible. By request, Bishop Wightman presented the Bibles to the class. In doing so the Bishop grew touchingly and beautifully eloquent, and for ten or fifteen minutes held his audience spell-bound by strain after strain of touching beauty, thrilling eloquence and melting pathos.

THE VALEDICTORY.

The valedictory was then delivered by Charles N. Mason, of Carteret county, N. C. His address was brief, well delivered and made a fine impression.

Dr. Craven announced that ample arrangements had been made for the Normal School at Trinity during the vacation, after which the doxology was sung by the audience, the music led by the band, and the benediction pronounced by Bishop Wightman. Thus closed one of the most successful Commencements we ever had the pleasure of attending.

THE PARTY AT NIGHT.

The young people had a most delightful social party at night. The campus, halls, libraries and chapels of the college were beautifully illuminated and everyone seemed to enjoy the occasion very much. There was no dancing, but the occasion was just as enjoyable as if there had been. Cupid's arrows flew thick and fast and many a promising youth was mortally wounded. It was fitting that this scene of youth and love and beauty should close the exercises of the day.

THE MORALITY OF TRINITY.

We have been delighted to find here such a fine moral influence among the students. Nearly all of them are members of some branch of the Christian Church and many of them are preparing for the ministry. It seems to be the object of the Faculty to improve the heart and soul of the students committed to their tuition, as well as to educate their minds. The moral atmosphere here is healthy, and this fact of itself ought to commend the institution to the public of North Carolina. There is not much danger that a boy will be led astray at Trinity.

A CONCLUDING SUMMARY.

In concluding our reports of the present commencement it gives us much pleasure to hear testimony to the success which has crowned all the public exercises of the present commencement of Trinity College. The students have all delivered their speeches in a most creditable manner—the gentlemen who by special invitation, have delivered sermons and addresses have reflected credit upon themselves, and more than met the demands of the occasion—the Faculty have impressed the large audiences, which have assembled from time to time, with the zeal and success

POLITICS IN DAVIDSON.

Hon. J. M. Leach for the State Senate.

Correspondence of the News.

THOMASVILLE, June 14.

The Democratic Convention for Davidson county will meet in Lexington on July 29th. It is thought that Hon. J. M. Leach will be elected to the Senate, and that he will have no opponent. He will most probably not be nominated by any convention, but run as an independent candidate, and thus carry the vote of both parties. Those who know Gen. Leach will see at once that this means something more than the Senate of North Carolina. The aspirants to represent the county in the Legislature are too numerous to mention, and it is difficult to say who will be nominated. C. F. Lowe, Esq., will most probably be nominated for Probate Judge. It is hard to tell who will be nominated for Sheriff, as the aspirants are many. The Republicans, as yet, have no candidates, and have advertised no convention. It is thought that Col. Henderson and John T. Cramer are indifferent as to the result of the next election, because of their failure to obtain the Collectorship of this district.

Death of Dr. Dalton.

Correspondence of the News.

LEAKSVILLE, June 14.

On Saturday last Dr. Robert Dalton, on his way from the County Convention, was thrown from his sulky and killed. He got his foot hung in the sulky springs and was dragged some distance by the horse.

I notice in to-day's issue of the News that the vote cast by the county of Johnston is not entered correctly. Johnston cast her 21 votes for Ashe and Winston. We did not vote for Dillard, as reported in your paper.

Very respectfully,
H. L. WATSON,
Chairman of Delegation.

THOMASVILLE.

Its Commercial Importance—Shoe and Chair Manufactories—Female College.

Correspondence of the News.

THOMASVILLE, N. C., June 14.

Thomasville is situated in Davidson county, on the North Carolina Railroad, 22 miles southwest of Greensboro and 28 miles from Salisbury. The soil is sandy, and the village has a neat, orderly appearance.

THE BUSINESS OF THE PLACE.

Thomasville used to be a great shoe manufacturing town, but now ther are only two shoe manufactories in the place. There are several stores in the place, but none of them do a great deal of business. A great many staves and cross ties for the railroad and a great deal of wood are sold and delivered here, and this, in connection with the mercantile and manufacturing interests, makes quite a respectable business for the place.

THOMASVILLE FEMALE COLLEGE.

In company with Rev. John W. Lewis, an esteemed minister residing in Thomasville, we had the pleasure of a visit to Thomasville Female College, which is now owned and conducted by Professor H. W. Rheinhardt, who is its successful president. We did not find the president at home, but were shown through the college by his accomplished wife. We were very much pleased with what we saw. The college is furnished with neat, modern furniture, and has all the advantages of a first-class school. The faculty is full, composed of two gentlemen, the president and Professor J. L. Wright, and six ladies—Mrs. Rheinhardt, and Misses Draughan, Beckwith, Griffith, McClellan and Brewster. With such accomplished teachers, in such a well furnished building, they are well prepared to do good work.

THE PAST SESSION.

The past session, which closed with a most successful commencement occasion on the 5th of June, we learn was satisfactory to all concerned. There were seventy-five pupils in attendance, fifty of whom were boarders, and fifty boarders are as many as they can accommodate, so they were full. They speak of enlarging the building so as to accommodate more boarders.

FOUNDERS OF THE SEMINARY.

The institution was established in 1849 by Mrs. Charles Mock, was presided over at one time by Dr. C. F. Deems, now of New York, also by Mr. John W. Thomas, late of Thomasville, who built the present building, also by Rev D R Bruton, of the North Carolina Conference, by Professor L W Andrews and by Rev C C Andrews, of Georgia. The present proprietor and President purchased it in 1874, since which time his patronage has been steadily increasing, until now he has as many boarders as he can accommodate. The school is not a denominational school, the faculty being composed of members of several denominations.

CHAIR MANUFACTURING.

There are two chair manufactories in Thomasville, one owned by J W Gray and the other by D S Westmoreland. The chairs are made of hickory wood, and are nice enough for parlor use and are sold remarkably cheap. The two houses sell nearly four thousand chairs annually. The Thomasville chair has a reputation for neatness, cheapness and durability throughout this and other States. J W Gray also deals in sashes, doors and lumber.

The inhabitants of Thomasville are a plain, practical unassuming people and the morality of the place is good. The News is in favor here, being taken more largely than any other daily paper.

The Campaign in the West.

Correspondence of the News.

ASHEVILLE, June 13, 1878.

I can not say that the campaign in this part of the State has made much headway yet, although the people are making their nominations and are talking politics a little. There is not enough opposition to our nominees to create excitement. Things are all one way here, for harmony prevails in the party, and the Radicals are non est inventus. An independent now and then may be found, but there is not one in all this country that stands the ghost of a chance. The people are down on independents and bolters; considerate men think it will be time enough to talk of dispensing with party organization and party discipline when the enemy, who were driven into the woods in the campaign of 1876, shall come in and surrender their arms and ammunition.

We have not heard yet what was done at the Raleigh Convention, but our people will endorse its action, good, bad, or indifferent, at least, so thinks

BUNCOMBE.

"Waiting at the River"

As the Irishman stood waiting at the river for it to run by in order that he might cross over, so people wait when suffering with constipation, forgetful that the cause is torpid liver and dyspepsia, and that it never cures itself, but must be overcome by some gentle yet positive cathartic. No medicine or combination of medicines yet discovered give such prompt and permanent relief as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets.

PINE APPLE, WILCOX Co., ALA.
DR. PIERCE, BUFFALO, N. Y.

Dear Sir—I was sickly from youth up, for seven years life was a burden, my food would not digest and my liver was enlarged. I tried various remedies, but to no purpose. Your Pellets have effected my entire cure. Inclosed find $1.50 for a copy of the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, I regard it as the best book ever published. I am trying to get others to use your medicines and read your books.

Very truly,
JOHN E. LUNAN.

Yesterday's Work at Raleigh—Our Nominees.

Charlotte Observer.

In another column we present a telegraphic outline of the work of the Democratic State Convention, which assembled in Raleigh Thursday. The next Supreme Court of North Carolina will be composed of Wm. N. H. Smith, of Wake, Thos. S. Ashe, of Anson, and John H. Dillard, of Guilford—all eminent, pure and learned men. Considering the many distinguished names presented before the convention, it is a matter of surprise that its work should have been done so quickly, and it will prove a source of pride and of gratification to all of the people of the State to learn that it was done so well. In the three gentlemen nominated we have a ticket upon which all sections of the State can proudly unite. The sectional objection cannot be brought against it, and it will sweep the State from end to end.

In the nominees are combined all the qualities that we naturally look for in gentlemen who are called upon to wear judicial robes. They are, without exception, men of the highest personal and professional character. Devoted to the law, men of intellectual force, and all of them men of judicial minds, they will form a bench of which every North Carolinian may be justly proud. In point of dignity of character, legal learning and ability, and unsullied reputation, they command the respect of our whole people.

The Convention has honored itself, even as the next Supreme Court will be an honor to the State.

KINSTON COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.

Closing Exercises—Address of Hon. Kemp P. Battle—The Concert.

KINSTON, June 14.

Correspondence of the News.

Never was there so much enthusiasm over the educational interests of the State as was manifested by the citizens of and around Kinston during the past week. The exercises of the Kinston Collegiate Institute closed last night. On Wednesday night compositions were read by the young ladies, and speeches delivered by the young men of the advanced classes. The compositions of the young ladies were elegantly written, and showed classic culture, close study and accurate training. Among the young ladies who attracted special attention by their elegant productions, were Misses Sarah Einstein, Amelia Hardee, Nora Hunter, Bella Rosenthal and Sallie Strong. Among the young men who distinguished themselves were Messrs. "Zeb Vance" Peebles, W. D. Pollock, Joseph Harvey and H. R. Strong.

Thursday, at 11 a. m., our townsman John F. Wooten, in a few happy remarks, introduced Hon. Kemp P. Battle, who arose and delivered one of the finest and most practical addresses ever delivered in Kinston, dwelling particularly upon the history and traditions of the State University, and the paramount importance of educating more extensively the agricultural classes. Mr. Battle has made many friends in this section, and his visit among us will doubtless add materially to the interest of the University, as the people see that he is the right man in the right place.

The concert, under the charge and management of Mrs. A. L. Davis, came off last night before the largest crowd ever assembled in Long's Hall. As a music teacher, as an accomplished lape in every respect, Mrs. D. has't a sudyt rior in North Carolina. The young ladies under her tutelage acquitted themselves creditably, and won the admiration of all present. Among the many beautiful pieces that were sung, "Sister's Birthday," by Misses Hardee and Miller, and "Old Ballads Ring Like Silver Bells," by Misses Pollock, Coward, and Messrs. Kinsey, Strong and Lindsay, were considered the best. We hope to continue these annual commencements—esto perpetua!

Senator Merrimon's Card.

Greensboro Patriot.

Senator Merrimon has issued a lengthy card, which he requests us to publish, vindicatory of himself as to the manner of his election to the Senate. Its length prevents us from publishing it. Whilst we are among those who have condemned the manner of his election we are not disposed to denounce him or treat him harshly.

The mistake he made then by refusing to abide by the decisions of the caucus of the party to which he belonged would in time be forgotton but if he persists in the coming contests for Senator in repeating the same thing it will neither be forgotten nor for forgiven.

While in the Senate his course has been such as to command the respect of all, and, he has certainly shown ability and won reputation second to no man in that body. He is young yet, the field is open and his future bright if he does not yield to misguided counsels and in his desire to retain his place and oppose Gov. Vance permit himself to become the leader of a mere faction as against the great bulk of the party to which he professes allegiance.

He can better afford to yield the seat he now occupies, which he has filled with credit to himself and his State, than continue a factious opposition to the majority of his party from any fancied or real injustice to which he may have been subjected.

He permits his hostility to Governor Vance to betray him into some very ungenerous and, we think, unjust criticisms of that gentleman's motives, which would have been much better omitted from the card.

Salisbury Watchman.

Senator Merrimon's card (the greatest blunder of his life) crowds out our usual variety of news. We give it place because many of our readers, hearing of it, may want to see it. It is as unjust as it was unexpected. The "card" meets with no favor here.

The Experience of a Lucky man.

(The Norfolk Day Book.)

Mr. Geo. R. Gornto, the lucky man of Princess Anne county, Va., who drew the $30,000 prize in the Louisiana State Lottery, was heavily in debt, with a mortgage on his farm and things going behind hand with him generally. He got hold of a copy of the advertisement of the Lottery. He determined to make a venture. He had but $5. 15 in the world. He wrote to M. A. Dauphin, P. O. Box 692, New Orleans, and enclosed $2 in the letter, and was just about to send it off to the Post Office by a boy, when a negro hand of his called on him and demanded his wages, which just amounted to $5. He offered the man the $3 he had left, but this was declined by the darkey, who threatened to leave his work just at a critical time unless he got the whole. He took the letter, and the two dollars out of it, which, with the three dollars he handed to the man.

Thus was he with but fifteen cents cash in the world; and while in this melancholy frame of mind, about an hour afterward, a negro drove up and bought a load of fodder, amounting to $1.90, not enough to pay for the ticket, but with ten cents in his pocket he made up the amount, and re-wrote the letter and enclosed $2. The next thing that turned up from that $2 was the gratifying intelligence that his ticket had drawn a prize of $30,000, more than enough to alter his current of bad luck, enable him to raise the mortgage, stock his farm well, and put him on his pins again. Such is luck.

Brewster's name has never been mentioned in connection with the chief Justice place, but we hear it spoken of every day when any one wants cheap hardware, stoves, tinware, wood and willowware, paints, oils and varnish. He is agent for the famous Fowler fly fan. Call and get one. Write for prices of goods and be convinced that he will sell you goods cheaper than elsewhere. *

Choice N. C. Flour.
If you want a barrel of number one Family Flour, call on W. A. Myatt. He is just receiving a large consignment of Extra N. C. Flour, and guarantees to please you. A full line of groceries always on hand. Examine before buying elsewhere. It will pay you.

Something Worth Attention.
Consigners of county produce should ship to A. C. Sanders & Co., because they are the only commission merchants in Raleigh. They do not buy at all on their own account, but make prompt returns, at the same prices they sell at, which are the highest this market affords. *

A General Invitation
is extended to the public to call at J. C. Brewster's where will be found the most complete stock of stoves and house-furnishing goods in the city. Seasonable goods, such as fly fans, fly traps, wire dish covers, fruit jars, &c., hardware and builders' material, edge tools, iron, steel, nails, horse and mule shoes.

Keep Cool.
This is a bit of good advice in these "trying" times. 'Tis also a suggestion easy to follow, since by investing in Blake's Ice, the purest and best, one can have a luxury to cool a fevered brow or a parched throat. In our climate ice has a thousand uses and is a necessity. *

Notice.

The Ætna Life Insurance Co., is successfully developing a branch of business not generally practiced. This company offers at very moderate terms—from twenty-five to fifty per cent. less than ordinary life rates—to secure business firms from losses by insuring the lives of parties indebted to them. Payment for goods frequently depends upon the purchaser living a sufficient time after the purchase has been made to realize upon the goods. By insuring the life of the purchaser, as provided in the plan in operation by the Ætna, the purchase money is secured beyond peradventure. Partners of business firms are also afforded under this plan an opportunity to insure their lives; the amount of the insurance to be paid at the death of either to the surviving partner. W. H. Wine at Evening Parties.
No matter what may be said about the use of wines and liquors, it is the adulterations and trash mixtures that does the mischief. Where pure wines are used we hear no complaint of intoxication from the use of Speer's Port Grape Wine of New Jersey. This wine is held in high estimation by the best doctors in the country, and was awarded the highest premium at the late Centennial.

The Central Executive Committee of the Democratic Party.

By virtue of a resolution passed at the State Democratic Convention on the 13th inst., conferring authority upon me as President of said Convention to select a Central Executive Committee to be composed of seven members, upon consultation with and advice of the members of the State Committee appointed for the several congressional districts, I do hereby appoint the following gentlemen to constitute said committee :—

CAPT. S. A. ASHE, Chairman,
R. H. BATTLE, JR.,
J. J. LITCHFORD,
GEO. H. SNOW,
W. H. PACE,
WALTER CLARKE,
LON. D. STEVENSON.

H. B. SHORT,
President State Democratic Convention.

A CATAWBA correspondent wishes a slight correction. He says that on the first ballot Catawba cast thirteen votes for Mr. Ashe and six for Schenck, which were afterwards changed, all to Mr. Ashe. The vote, as published, would seem to convey the idea, he says, that the vote cast was solid for Schenck, which was not the case.

OF the District Judicial nominations, the Wilmington Star says : As was expected, the State Convention ratified the action of the three District Conventions in the nominations of Superior Court Judges for the Seventh, Eighth and Ninth Districts. Graves, Avery and Gudger are all good men and true.

THE Rockingham Spirit of the South, Independent, says of the nominations of Smith, Ashe and Dillard:—This we regard as a strong ticket, and one that will doubtless receive the very hearty support of the Democratic party. It is understood that the Republicans will make no nominations for Supreme Court Judges.

THE Rockingham Bee says, in reference to the work of the Convention: —Smith, Ashe and Dillard are the nominees for Supreme Court Judges, so we hear by telegram. No particulars, only the Convention was large and exciting. Ashe was strong, so was Schenck, and Dillard gained until he got the nomination.

EDITORS, Reporters, Printers and Devils, are all very much in the condition which the judiciary nominated on Thursday will never be ; and snapping for rest late on Saturday night, they will come up to the scratch gracefully and early on Monday morning, and for the balance of the campaign make things lively for folks.

THE friends of Mr. Winston are highly pleased at the vote he received in the convention, and went away in perfect good humor with the ticket. Indeed everybody is pleased with the ticket put up on Thursday. Of all the gentlemen put in nomination for places on the Supreme court bench, not one was unworthy to adorn it, and the choice made was by no means a distinction to the prejudice of any. It is a pleasing circumstance that North Carolina possesses so large a number of gentlemen worthy of any public station at her hands; and so let us exalt the horn of the State on this and every other occasion.

THE District Judicial ticket will command the approval and support of the voters of the State. Of that ticket the Wilmington Star says:—The candidates for Circuit Judges were chosen by the people of the Districts in which they reside. We suppose they are the right men for the important places to which they have been nominated. They are unknown to us, with one exception. Maj, Avery is a gentleman of excellent sense and high character. He belongs to the distinguished family of Avery, and was a good Confederate soldier. He has the reputation of being a good lawyer.

THE Warrenton Gazette refers to the Convention, and says of the nominations:

At the State Convention the Hon. W. N. H. Smith, of Raleigh, was nominated as Chief Justice, and the Hon. John Dillard, of Greensboro, and the Hon. Thomas S. Ashe, of Anson, as Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of North Carolina. J. F. Graves, of Surry, A. C. Avery, of Burke, and James C. L. Gudger, of Haywood, were nominated as Superior Court Judges of the 7th, 8th and 9th Judicial Districts. This is our State ticket. The candidates are good and pure men, and it is the duty of our party to see that they are elected.

COMMENTING on the ticket presented by the convention on Thursday, the Wilmington Star, believing that it is in all respects a most fortunate selection, says:—We congratulate the people of North Carolina upon the excellent ticket chosen by the State Convention. We were somewhat apprehensive that the selections would not all be wise and judicious. We were afraid that sectionalism or hero worship might so invade the politics of the State as to cause the nomination of those who would not reflect credit upon the party or dignity upon the Bench. But our fears were groundless. The intelligence of the convention was most wisely directed, and an admirable ticket has been presented to the people of North Carolina for their approval and ratification at the polls.

REFERRING to the Convention and the nominations made on Thursday, the New Bernian says :—

This body, which assembled in Metropolitan Hall, at the Capital of the State, on last Thursday, was distinguished above all previous State Conventions, for talent, energy and party fidelity. As an evidence of this latter attribute, the friends of Judge Schenck, who went down to Raleigh fully expecting him to be nominated, but saw their forces swept from the field like straw before the tempest, bore their defeat manfully, wheeled into line with heroic resignation, and showed their determination to hold up the standard of Democracy in the face of their discouragement and humiliation. The ticket put before the people by the Convention is as nearly perfect as a political combination can be. Smith, Ashe and Dillard are a trinity of intellect, professional culture and high personal qualities, which would bring honor, usefulness and power to any State or nation. We are not sure but that it is the very best ticket that could be nominated.

Judge Schenck.

The friends of this gentlemen were defeated in their expectation before the Convention, but they went away not ashamed of the strength which their favorite developed, and there will be no more earnest or zealous supporters of the State ticket than the friends of Judge Schenck in the late Convention.

As the official record of proceedings appeared after the changes and correction of votes. the actual strength which Schenck developed was not stated. A correspondent in to-day's News refers to the matter, and shows the vote as it actually existed on the call of the first ballot. It appears that the following counties voted for Schenck :—

Alexander, Alleghany, Buncombe, Burke, Cabarrus, Caldwell, Catawba, Cherokee, Clay, Cleaveland, Gaston, Halifax, Haywood, Henderson, Jackson, Lincoln, Macon, Madison, McDowell, Mecklenburg, Mitchell, Northampton, Polk, Rutherford, Sampson, Swain, Transylvania, Wake, Wilkes and Yancey, and that they gave him a popular vote of thirty three thousand and ten, of the whole vote of the State, one hundred and twenty-three thousand, Democratic votes, cast in 1876.

Judge McKoy.

The people of the Cape Fear section stood unitedly by Judge McKoy, for Supreme Court Judge, and some very handsome things were said of him in Convention. The Wilmington Star, referring to this noble gentleman, says: —Judge McKoy received a very flattering vote for Associate Justice, under the circumstances. It was not known to many of his best friends that his name would be presented to the Convention. No efforts were made by active canvassers and letter writers to secure his nomination. He received 321 votes on the first ballot. We received recently a letter from one of the greatest men in North Carolina, in which he expressed surprise that there was not a general movement all along the line in his favor. He said some extremely handsome things of Judge McKoy, which would gratify any man, especially when they were so just and appropriate. This distinguished gentleman lives in another section of the State, but Judge McKoy had traveled his circuit there, and he had full opportunities to estimate his merits as a jurist.

Senator Merrimon's Card.

The papers quoted below express themselves on the card of Senator Merrimon, and may be taken as a fair index of the press of the State which has spoken out on the subject, the supposed Merrimon organs defending the Senator and his card, or silent altogether, and the Vance papers deprecating, regretting and condemning the card

Piedmont Press,

Senator A. S. Merrimon sent us his card a few days since for publication, but in consequence of its length we cannot give it space. It would occupy about eight columns of our paper, and the whole thing could have been expressed in these words : "I want to go back to the Senate again."

Judge Merrimon first tries to fix up smoothly the manner in which he was elected to the Senate, but this is entirely unsatisfactory to the Democratic party. He then claims that he has made a good Senator, and is entitled to the place again. But the lowest, the most ungentlemanly and offensive part of his whole effort are his uncalled for and unjust slugs and insulting allusions to Governor Vance. The whole thing is a weak document, emanating as it does from a man of his position, and will do himself much harm.

Greenville Express

We do not see how it can do the Judge any good to attack Gov. Vance in the manner he has done. As we read it, a certain gentleman who aspired to the Chief Justiceship, comes crossing up in our memory and the effectual ways and means by which he lost it, are no less vivid and suggestive. Vance is the choice of the whole people, leaving out his personal enemies and Judge Merrimon's particular friends, and we will hail with delight the day that a North Carolina Democratic Legislature will say to him, Governor, step up higher; you have been a noble patriot—enter thou into the joys of thy Senatorial chair.

Rocky Mount Mail.

When correspondents of some of our leading papers began to make charges of bargain and intrigue against the Judge and his friends, we thought it to be our duty to vindicate him and them against such unfounded charges, and without consulting any one, we made the statement that appeared in the Mail of May 3rd. Yet we have not, nor do we now propose to make the Mail a partizan organ in the present contest for Senator. It is our purpose, if we know ourself, to do full and ample justice to both Gov. Vance and Judge Merrimon, leaving the question of the election of Senator to the Legislature, where it belongs, and in our support of Democratic candidates for the Legislature the question of whether they may be favorable to Vance or Merrimon, or some other Democrat for Senator, will not influence our action or support.

Judge Schenck.

Correspondence of the News.

I desire to have published, for the benefit of the Democrats in the State, the vote cast for the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this article, in our late Democratic convention.

Judge Schenck carried twenty-six western counties, thirty in all, out of ninety-four, receiving 330 of the votes cast. Considering that thirteen of the most conspicuous gentlemen in the State were voted for on this ballot, to receive over one-fourth of the entire vote of the State, and those cast by his own neighbors and home-counties among whom and in which he has been raised, and whom he has so successfully served in many distinguished places of trust, is a compliment the friends of Judge Schenck lay near to their hearts.

The magnificent ticket in the field for the Supreme Court will be heartily supported by Judge Schenck's friends, but his vindication will yet come. The truth will prevail.

Consumption Cured.

An old physcian, retired from practice, had placed in his hands by an East Indian missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a postive radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for peparing and using, in German, French or English. LOCAL BRIEFS.

Roasting-ears have been eaten by one of the agriculturists of this county. The corn was planted in February.

——There will be a regular meeting of Hiram Lodge to-morrow evening, at 8 o'clock. Punctual attendance is desired.

——The dusty streets prove a nuisance now to every pedestrian, and a suggestion is made that a street sprinkler would prove a blessing.

——It is said there will be a rush at our State summer resorts this season, and hotelists are happily anticipatory, dreaming of the prospective boarder.

——The suggestion of the NEWS about street improvements are always followed. We noticed the need of cleaning out the gutters a day or so since, and men were at work next day at the place designated.

——A number of improvements in the way of house-building and repairs are noticeable in many parts of the city. The summer has not, as usual, stopped such work. It is stated that the number of houses whose erection is contemplated in the autumn, will show an increase on last year's work in that line.

——The matter of the early closing of stores does not appear to have been considered as a necessary step by either shop-keepers on presumably worn-out clerks. Only three stores have made early hours a rule. It remains to be seen whether others will show judgment by following the example so set.

——In a statement of the quick time made in the transportation of freights over the N. C. Railway, the erring types made us say that a car load of hay was ordered from Richmond on Tuesday noon, and reached at 3 a. m. on Tuesday. This is wrong. The hay came on Thursday, after a lapse of only 36 hours, not a week, as the type said.

The New Principal of the Charlotte Institute for Young Ladies.

Rev. W. R. Atkinson, for some time past one of the professors at Peace Institute, and who during his stay here has made many friends, leaves soon to accept the position of Principal of the Charlotte Institute for young ladies. Of this estimable gentleman the Charlotte Observer says:

The selection of Rev. W. R. Atkinson to take charge of the Charlotte Institute for young ladies, at the beginning of the next session, is regarded as an eminently fortunate one. His ability, culture and dignity of character are highly commended by those who know him.

A Runaway and Its Results.

As Mr. Geo. B. Enniss, accompanied by Mr. Wm. Watts, both of Auburn, this county, were driving a one-horse buggy on New Berne Avenue Friday afternoon, the horse became frightened at some boys, who, playing in the street, suddenly jumped up. The animal shied, and threw Mr. Enniss upon the ground. The effect of the sudden, hard fall was to break his right arm below the elbow. The horse then ran away at high speed down the avenue. After keeping his seat in the buggy for quite a distance, Mr. Watts attempted to get on the shafts so as to reach the bridle, but failing, got back in the vehicle. He then tried to get out of the buggy by climbing over the back. Such was the speed of the horse, that he was afraid to loose his grasp on the seat. He was by a jerk thrown to the ground on his face, and received a number of scratches, of such extent as to mar the appearance of his visage considerably.

The horse continued his headlong career, turning down Wilmington street until, reaching Martin, he made a quick turn, so sharp that he fell. In falling, one of his hoofs was twisted under him and inflicted a terrible wound in his body, of such nature and extent as probably to render him unserviceable.

Mr. Enniss was picked up and carried to Pescud, Lee & Co.'s drug store, where he was attended by Dr. P. E. Hines, who set his broken arm. He was otherwise uninjured. Mr. Watts was also not hurt beyond the scratches. Both the gentlemen were able to return to their homes in the evening.

Kinston Collegiate Institute.

Hon. Kemp P. Battle, President of the University, has just returned to Chapel Hill from a visit to Kinston, where, before the Kinston Collegiate Institute and a large audience, he delivered an address on Higher Education, especially of farmers. President Battle reports that there is quite an enthusiasm in Lenoir on the subject of education, and that the pupils of the Kinston Collegiate Institute, whose exercises he heard, had been evidently carefully trained and properly instructed. No town in the State, he thinks, can boast of finer schools than the one above named, one presided over by Dr. Lewis, the other by Prof. Midyette.

Peace Institute.

The commencement exercises of this Institute will be held on Wednesday evening, June 19th. The announcement of distinctions will be made After the rendition of other musical selections, the address will then be delivered by G. R. Brackett, D. D., of Charleston, S. C. Then follows music. The certificates of Graduation will be awarded the graduating class. To each member of the class a bible will be presented. The exercises will be concluded by the benediction. The drawings and paintings of the pupils will then be exhibited for inspection.

Raleigh Female Seminary.

On Monday next the commencement exercises of this school are to be held at the Salisbury Street Baptist Church, at 8:30 p. m. After a voluntary on the organ, and a prayer, the diplomas will be conferred and distinctions announced. The annual address will then be delivered by Rev. R. Furman, D. D., of S. C.

The large auditorium of the church will admit the seating of a large audience. The concert by the pupils will be held on Tuesday evening, beginning at 8:30 p. m. The selections of music are admirable, and the entertainment will be particularly enjoyable.

Wilson Collegiate Seminary.

The commencement exercises of this excellent institution of learning Prof. J. B. Brewer, Principal, will begin to-morrow, and continue until Thursday next.

The Rev. Jas. B. Taylor, of Wilmington, will deliver the address on Wednesday night, June 19th.

The concert will take place on Thursday evening, 20th inst.

Full reports of this commencement will appear in the News.

Masonic Address.

F. H. Busbee, Esq., will deliver an address before the Masonic Fraternity at Wilson, on the occasion of the celebration of the anniversary of St. John's day, June 24th. The style of the addresses of this gentleman is both chaste and instructive, and the people of Wilson may pleasantly anticipate a treat in store.

Mayor's Court.

William Powell, colored, charged with assaulting George Murray, a negro drayman, was dismissed from the precincts of the court upon the payment of costs in the case.

An offender, drunk and down, after taking the customary 12 hours repose in the guard house, was released.

Magistrate's Court.

Before Justice J. C. S. Lumsden, one Maria Haywood, colored, was tried, on a charge of disorderly conduct, preferred by Amy Watson, colored. The guilt of the defendant being proved she was made to pay the costs.

Improvements Needed.

The suggestion is made to the municipal authorities that that portion of North Street near Oakwood Cemetery requires prompt repairs. The recent rains have so washed the roadway as to render it well nigh impassable.

The Normal School.

The A. T. & O. Railroad Company, from Statesville to Charlotte, will pass free over their line all pupils, going to and returning from the Normal School at the University.

Charlotte papers please copy.

Township Convention.

The Democratic Convention of this township met last evening at Metropolitan Hall. Mr. J. D. Royster was called to the chair, Mr. W. M. Utley acted as Secretary.

A motion was made and adopted endorsing the nominees of the State Judicial Convention.

The members of the old committee stated they had served in that capacity for a long period, and requested leave to resign. This was allowed. On motion each Ward of the city was requested to recommend a committeeman, while the township recommend two, to supply the place of those retiring. The following were then recommended.

First Ward, W. C. McMackin; Second Ward, Mills Brown; Third Ward; H. H. Roberts; Fourth Ward, W. E. Pell; Fifth Ward, J. M, Batts; Township, A. H. Temple, R. H. Dunn.

No further business coming before the convention it adjourned until Saturday next, at which time the county Democratic Convention is to be held.

Supreme Court.

Court opened at 9 a. m., yesterday. All the Justices were present. The consideration of appeals from the 5th Judicial District was resumed, and causes disposed of as follows:

State vs R W A Rogers, from Union; argued by the Attorney General for the State, and W H Pace, for the defendant.

John Buie et als vs Mayor and Commissioners of Fayetteville, from Cumberland; argued by Bart. Fuller for the plaintiffs, and Guthrie and Carr, and W. F. Campbell for the defendants.

Court adjourned until 9 a. m. Monday, when appeals from the Third District will be called in regular order.

A Reminiscence of the Convention.

During Thursday last, while the late grand Judicial convention was in progress, one of the delegates thereto became rather in a how-come-you-so, condition. Seeking a place to rest his muddled head, he by some means got into the hay loft of a livery stable. There drunkenly dozing, dreamed he of the convention as a thing past. Waking not until evening shadows threw their lengthening forms, he walked to a window over-looking the yard, and looked out. Thinking that he had slept all night and that day was just dawning, he hallooed to a passing African, "Say, Captain, who got the nominations yesterday?"

There is Trouble in Store.

For those who neglect to rectify irregularities of the stomach, liver and bowels, which they foolishly imagine will "come right of themselves." Of this silly error such persons are usually disabused by the development of some serious chronic malady, traceable to what they were pleased to consider a trifling disorder of the above named associate organs. Such a culpable error is easily avoided. A course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters invariably has the effect of renewing the secretive action of a torpid liver, restoring healthy digestion and assimilation, and rendering the habit of body perfectly regular. The activity of these alimentary functions being restored, and the entire system toned and regulated by this incomparable corrective and invigorant, no danger to the general health is to be apprehended from causes which, if not eradicated in time, will assuredly undermine it. ju11-6t

BEAUTY:

OR THE

Secret of a Fair Face.

AN ITEM OF INTREST TO EVERY LADY WHO DESIRES TO BE MORE BEAUTIFUL THAN SHE NOW IS.

Unfortunately no one woman in a hundred, subjected to the whims of an American climate possesses that basic and starting point of real beauty—a pure and clear complexion.

What nature has thus denied, art must be called upon to furnish.

It can be done; it is done daily. Prof. W. E. Hagan placed beauty within the reach of every unblessed daughter of Eve who he discovered that surprising article known in fashionable circles as the true secret of beauty, and called

MAGNOLIA

BALM

The MAGNOLIA BALM is a sure device for creating a pure and blooming complexion. It conceals all natural blemishes in the most surprising and effective manner.

It removes all roughness or pimples, redness blotches, freckles, and tan with magical power.

It drives away all evidences of fatigue and excitement.

It makes the plainest face beautiful.

It gives the complexion a dazzling purity and makes the neck, face, and arms appear graceful rotund, and plump.

It makes a matron (30 or 40 look not more than 20 years old, and changes the rustic maiden into a cultivated city belle.

The Magnolia Balm removes all blemishes and conceals every drawback to beauty; and while it is as harmless as water, it looks like in its effects that the closest observer cannot detect its use.

Ladies who want to make themselves attractive can make an absolute certainty of it by using HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM and we know of no other way. It is the cheapest preparation in the world, all things considered, and may be had at any drug store.
